Alfred is talking to Hilda about his visit to the doctor.

Hilda: _____ did the doctor say about your stomach problems?

Alfred: He said that I should try these new pills for two weeks. He thinks I have an ulcer.

Hilda: Oh dear. _____ pills should you take each day?

Alfred: I'm supposed to take three pills a day.

Hilda: _____ do you take them? Before or after meals?

Alfred: After meals. _____ should I keep the medicine so that I remember to take it?

Hilda: _____ don't you put it on the kitchen counter? That way you'll see it from the kitchen table when we are eating.

Alfred: That's a good idea.

Hilda: _____ do you have to go back to see the doctor?

Alfred: He wants to see me next Wednesday.
